

Costs & application

The camp prize for Germans is 195 Euros per person which includes travelling by "the special scouting train". International guests will have to pay their travel costs to Germany. The final camp prize depends on whether you get on the train with us and mainly which country you come from. We use the jamboree concept to decide on the final prize, meaning scouts from Tunisia, for example, will pay less for the camp than those coming from France as it is simply more expensive to travel to Germany from Tunisia.

We will communicate the final prize to you individually.

There is a large range of possibilities to support your coming. The German government supports scouting and camping activities, especially when international scouts are invited to Germany. Please do not hesitate to ask about financial aid. We would be happy to provide you with some more information about financial aid and work out a funding plan together.

The application deadline is January 31, 2014. Please inform us about your group's size and age range by then. A more detailed application form will be following within the next few months.

Who we are

The catholic German Scout Association Saint George (DPSG) was founded in 1929 as one of four WOSM approved German scout organizations. Including 95,000 members today, the DPSG is the biggest scout organization in Germany. It is parted in 25 dioceses.

The diocese of Mainz consists of three districts including 38 scouting tribes, 2800 female and male scouts in total.

Next year, we expect about 900 of them plus our dear international scouting friends to join our camp in Grosszerlang.

What is Scouttropolis all about?

Scouttropolis will be a city built up by all scouts attending the camp – cub scouts, explorers, scouts, rovers and leaders. Everyone is welcomed to use his/her own skills and talents to improve our city and actively make it a place to feel home at, discover new things and make new friends. We would be happy to have international friends living in our city who share their cultures, experiences and traditions with us to support the building process and be part of Scouttropolis.

Why should I attend?

Scouttropolis offers you the possibility to learn about your own talents, improve and get to know new ones. We would like you to enjoy being part of this whole process of building up a city from the beginning, seeing it grow, being involved in trading, ...

When & where?

At the night of August 24, there will be a special train for scouts of Mainz only from Mainz to Grosszerlang. All German scouts are expected to get on this train to travel to the campsite together. For international scouts we offer two possibilities: You can either go to Frankfurt and get on the train with us or you can directly travel to Berlin. Also, it is possible to travel to Germany before August 24 to meet German scout groups in advance (home hospitality). We are open to organize individual stays for your group and/or connect you to a German partner scouting group. Just get in touch and let us know what you prefer.

Conditions for attending

To make sure international guests are well-integrated and can take part in the programme without any difficulty and so we can guarantee you will have a chance to enjoy the camp just as much as everyone else, we came up with some conditions for attending:

- Everyone needs to be able to speak English.
- You need to be 10 years old at least.
